

Scholarship for Professionals and Students in Career Development

CCDA awards scholarships to one professional in career development who does not have access to funds for professional development AND to one student enrolled in at least 6 credits in a program of study related to career development who plans to pursue a career in the field.

Scholarships awarded for 2017-2018 apply to one year of membership dues (from date of award) and registration for the CCDA Spring Training (Friday, April 7th), a value of more than $100.

Extended Application Deadline – Monday, March 13, 2017

2017-2018 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

NAME:

ADDRESS:

PHONE:

ORGANIZATION:

EMAIL:

STUDENT

PROFESSIONAL

GPA (FOR STUDENTS):

ADVISOR (FOR STUDENTS):

SCHOOL ATTENDING:

STATEMENT OF INTEREST: Share in less than 150 words why you are interested in CCDA and its professional development opportunities.

STATEMENT OF INVOLVEMENT: Share in less than 200 words what you expect to gain from becoming involved in CCDA and what you hope to contribute to the organization and the field of career development.

ESSAY/ARTICLE: Submit a short article for submission to the CCDA newsletter. Potential article topics can relate to frameworks of practice, happenings affecting the field of career development, resources of interest to practitioners/clients, or other relevant topics of interest to the field of career development. (Articles will be shared in an upcoming CCDA newsletter at the discretion of the CCDA Board).

Scholarship Recipients may be announced in the CCDA newsletter*

Email completed applications to: Jason Radman at Jason.radman@colostate.edu.

Scholarship recipients will be asked to join a CCDA committee, submit a short article for the CCDA newsletter, or attend a CCDA service event during the scholarship year.